4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: -

Lack of self - control has brought grief to more people than any other shortcoming known to the human race. Every successful person must have some sort of balance wheel for his or her emotions. When a person becomes extremely angry, certain glands triggered by negative emotions begin to empty their contents into the blood and if this is kept up for more time, it will result in serious damage to the entire system, sometimes leading to death. The blood coagulates at a time. Nature created this system for the protection of the young human race during the savage stage of development, when anger usually preceding a fight might mean opening of the veins and loss of blood.

There is a reason of developing self - control. One who lacks self - control may be easily mastered by one who has such control. Success in life is very largely a matter of harmonious negotiation with other people and this requires self- control in abundance.

The author of the 'Law of Success Philosophy' once observed a long line of angry women in front of the 'Complaint desk' of a large Chicago department store. The young woman who was hearing the complaints kept sweetly cool and smiled all the time notwithstanding the fact that some of the women were very, abusive. One by one, this young woman directed the women to the right department and she did it with such poise that it caused the author to walk up closer where he could see just what was happening. Standing just behind the young woman at the complaint desk, was another woman, who was actually handling the desk.

These notes contained the gist of each complaint, minus the abuse of the person making the complaint. It turned out the woman at the desk was stone deaf. She was getting all the facts she needed through her assistant, at her back. The manager of the store said that this was the only system he had found that enables him to handle the complaint desk properly, as human nerves were not strong enough to listen all day long to abusive language.

- i) What must every successful person have??
- ii) Why do we require self- control?
- iii) What did the young woman who was hearing the complaints do?
- iv) Why is harmonious negotiation needed?
